

God's Rainbow

Through faith, He envisioned it; through hope He created it; through love He gave it to me.

God gave me Rainbow as a young girl. Rainbow has given me the lessons that will travel with me throughout my teenage years. God and Rainbow together will always be by my side – to lead, to direct and to guide.

I entered Rainbow in my Girlhood. I learned to appreciate and understand the beauty of the seven rays of our Order. Each ray represents a significant value.

The Red Ray is a symbol of God's eternal gift – that of Love. I love my family and friends, but most of all I love my Creator. Because of Him I have learned that whatever trials and tribulations may come to me, God's bright light of love will always shine through. Love will never die.

The Orange Ray is a symbol of God's promise – that of Religion. Our Creator teaches me love and service. Through the exemplification of His life, I have learned kindness and forgiveness. Religion is found in the heart.

The Yellow Ray is a symbol of God's beautiful creations – that of Nature. I am in awe of the magnificent beauty of the sky as the sun rises and sets over the rolling Flint Hills, the fields of golden grain blowing in the wind and the faces of the sunflowers as they follow the sun. Through Nature I share my feelings with God.

The Green Ray is a symbol of God's covenant – that of Immortality. I have learned that life is filled with adversity and sorrow. My life may be filled with joy today and tomorrow it may be gone, but I live and believe in God, so my soul shall never die.

The Blue Ray is a symbol of God's loyalty – that of Fidelity. I am faithful to my obligations and vows. I am true to others and to my work. Confidence has been placed in me through my Fidelity. My word when given is sacred.

The Indigo Ray is a symbol of God's unity – that of Patriotism. When we come together to defend our flag and our country, as a woman, a wife, a mother, I will join the fight to protect our freedom. I dedicate my life to God, to country and to liberty.

The Violet Ray is a symbol of God's healing power – that of Service. The service I perform each day makes my life complete. Through acts of Service I fully understand the meaning of God's Rainbow. For those who are in need, I am there.

Rainbow has instilled in me valuable lessons. I have Faith to dream. I have Hope to make those dreams a reality. I have Charity to share my dreams with others. My life will always be a reflection of what I have learned. Through my Rainbow teachings, I will be a better woman, wife, mother and friend.

The seven truths will remain forever a part of me, because – through faith I believed it; through hope I received it; through love I live it.
